D. H. Robinson and wife left Wednesday for their home in Rockford, Ohio. They have been coming to our city for the past five years and are delighted with our climate as a winter home. We have a number of good Ohio people who are among DeLand's best winter visitors. We want more of them.

Mr. J. B. Cleveland, general manager and Mr. N. L. Bedford, sales agent of the International Piano Company, Jacksonville, visited DeLand Monday and Tuesday. While here they sold a piano to G. A. Dreka & Co., to be used as a prize to the most popular young lady, to be voted for later in the season. This is quite a novel method of advertising, and one that is proving very popular throughout the country.

Dr. Lincoln Hulley returned on Sunday from a trip to Knoxville and Nashville, Tenn., and Atlanta, Ga. In Tennessee Dr. Hulley addressed the teachers' associations of central and eastern Tennessee, there being in attendance 1500 teachers at the central association meeting and 500 at the eastern association meeting. Dr. Hulley states that great interest is being taken in educational matters in Tennessee.
